1969 MARIST PLAINSMAN
Marist High School
4200 W. 115th Street
Chicago, Illinois

"Marist High School—founded in 1963." Over this emblem pass the soft-soled feet of Marist men. Sometimes they rush, eager to meet the demands of an unfeeling buzzer. Sometimes they drag, pondering, worrying—or maybe they're just plain tired. But all who pass through this hallway walk, in some way, toward the maturity of manhood. As the dust of another year settles upon this insignia, we begin our portrayal of this year at Marist.

BR. PIUS XAV

A man has a job to do.
He pauses and ponders and Prays.

Over his decisions.
He has ideals. He has dreams.
He carefully makes them concrete.

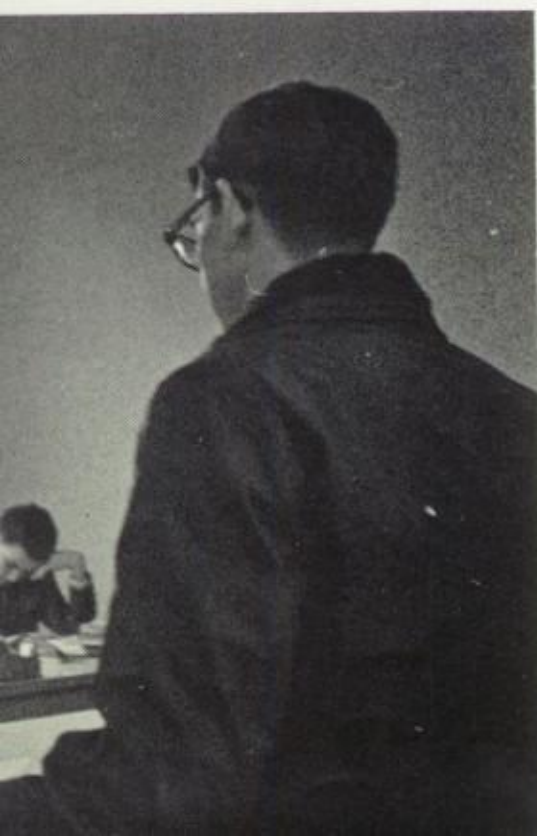

He sees youth.
For us he aspires to greatness.
Firmly prodding.

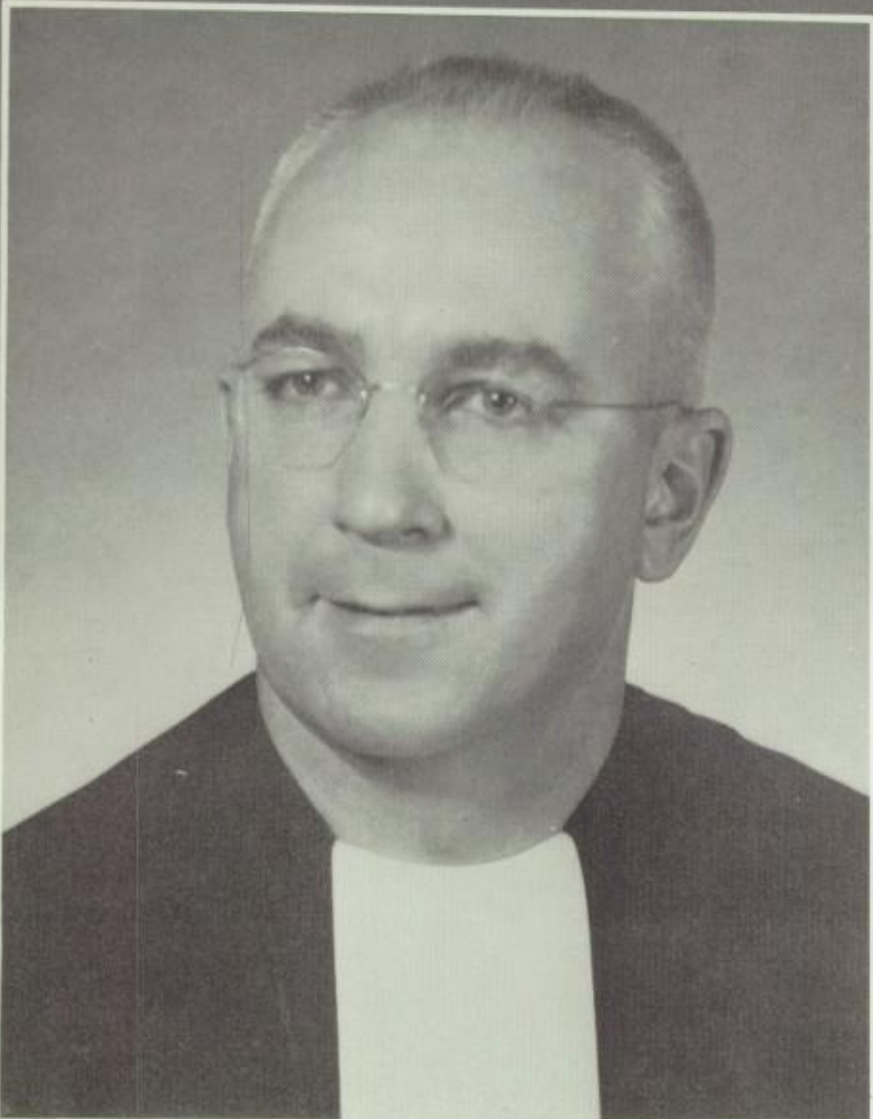

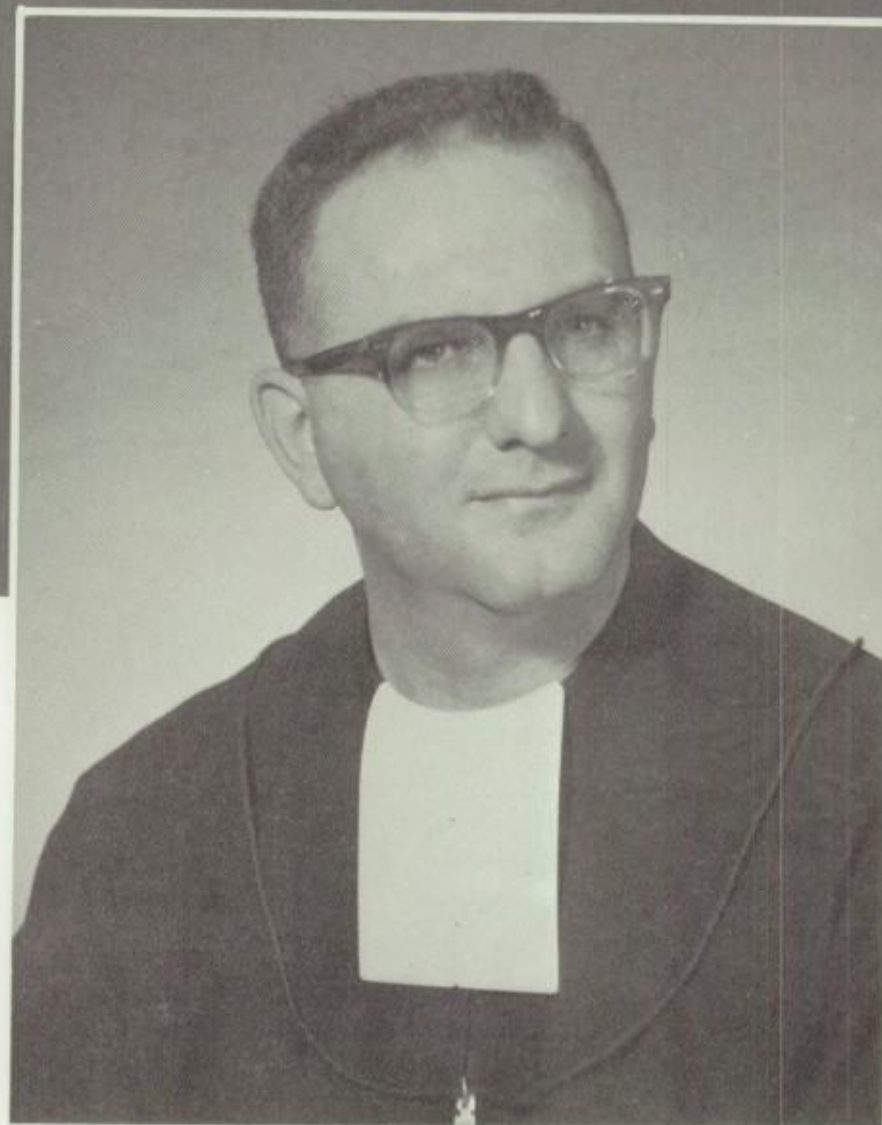

IER, F.M.S.

Gently molding,
He implants those ideals.
Fear has no place here—
Only hope!
His job done, he humbly moves on.
What he has left behind will Grow and prosper.
The hope that Brother Pius planted Promises that.

This mural, which adorns the outside wall of the school chapel, symbolizes the meaning of Marist. The symbol on the left is the "Marist 'M,'" a monogram which is part of the seal of the Marist Brothers, telling of their devotion to Mary, the Mother of Jesus. The cross and the lamp, on the right side of the mural, comprise the traditional symbol of Catholic education. The figures in the center are, in a sense, a combination of the other two symbols. They depict Blessed Marcellin Champagnat, the founder of the Marist Brothers, and three students, representing the youth for whose welfare Father Champagnat founded the community which staffs Marist, the Marist Brothers of the Schools.

FRESHMEN

Large streams from little fountains flow,
Tall oaks from little acorns grow;
And though now I am small and young,
Of judgment weak and feeble
tongue,
Yet all great, learned men, like me
Once learned to read their ABC.

The weekend of October 13, 1968, marked the dates of the second Marist Homecoming Activities. On Friday night, Marist's mighty school spirit flared at a rally held before a well-attended sock hop. Saturday night's festivities included a semi-formal dance with Seniors, Juniors, Alumni, and Faculty present. The climax of the evening took place as Karen Spetyla was crowned the Queen.

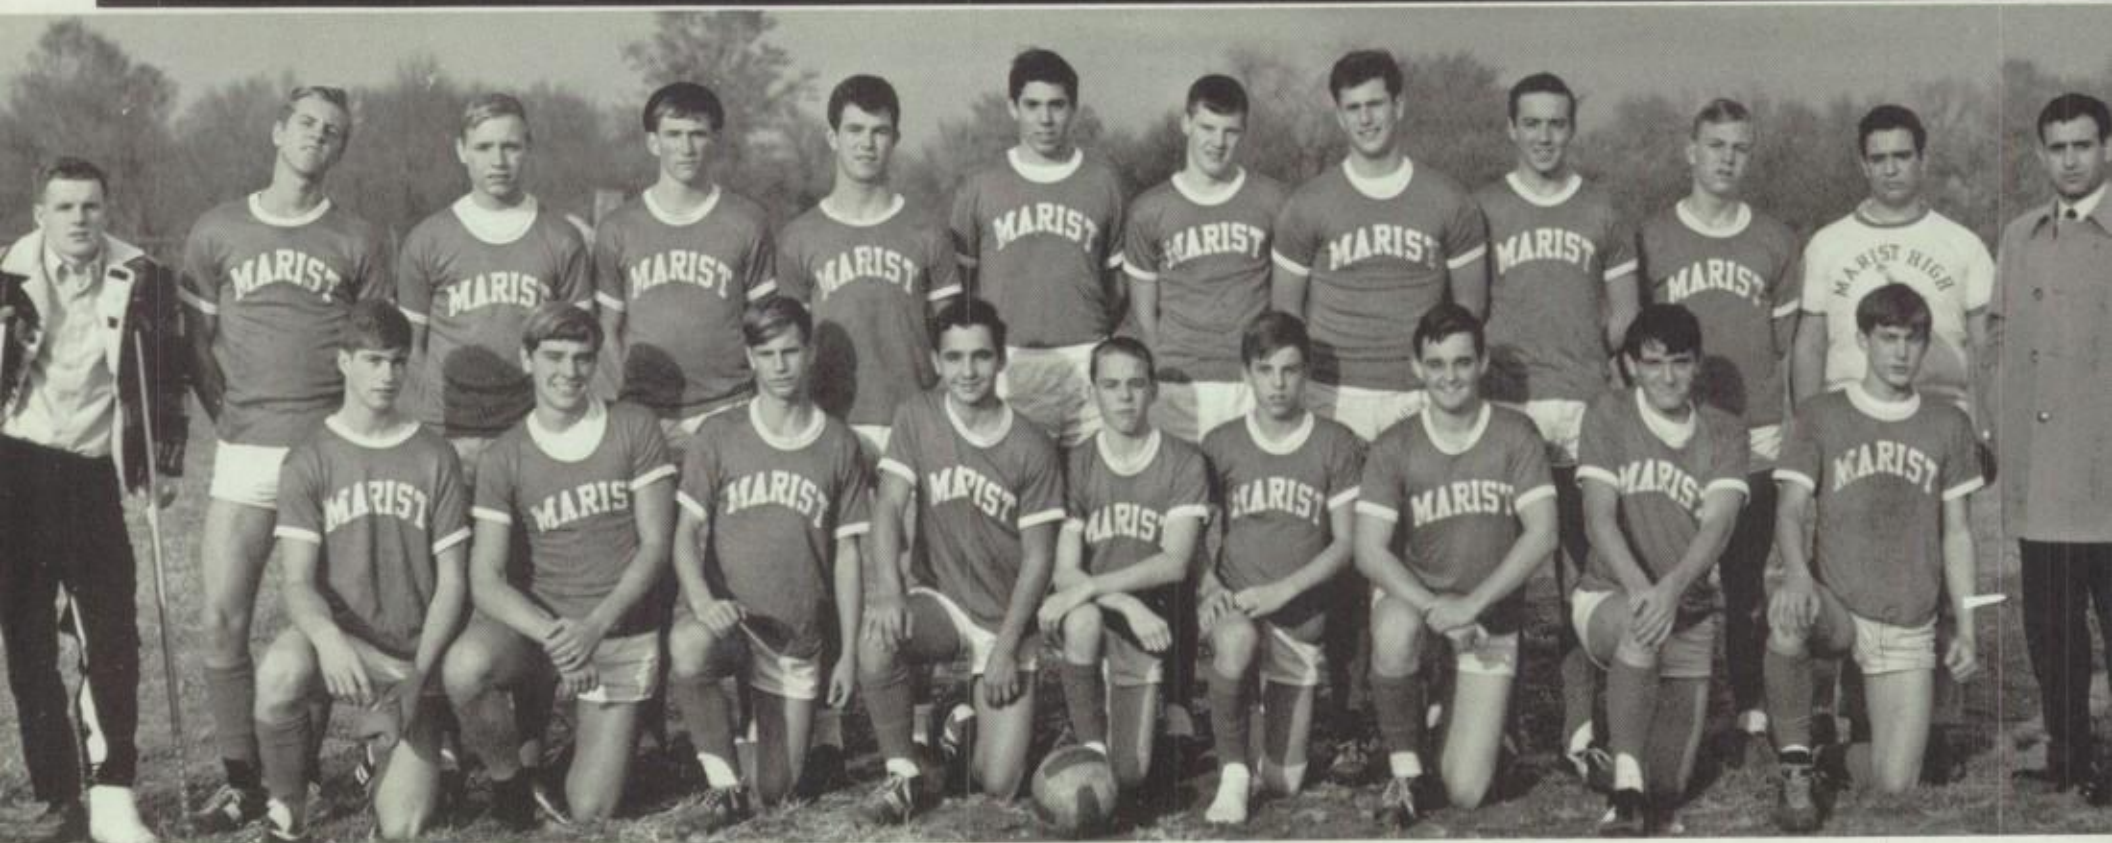

On Sunday, students prepared to leave for the game. Cars were readied for the parade that left Marist for Eckersall Stadium. There, the Redskins were upset by a super-charged St. Patrick team.

SWIMMING

The Marist swim team, under new head coach, Br. Raymond Faucher, compiled an overall record of two and seven in dual meets this year. The team finished fourth in the C.P.L.'s, narrowly being edged out of second by St. Pat's and St. Ignatius. In the district meet they placed seven men and both relays, and finished a very respectable seventh.

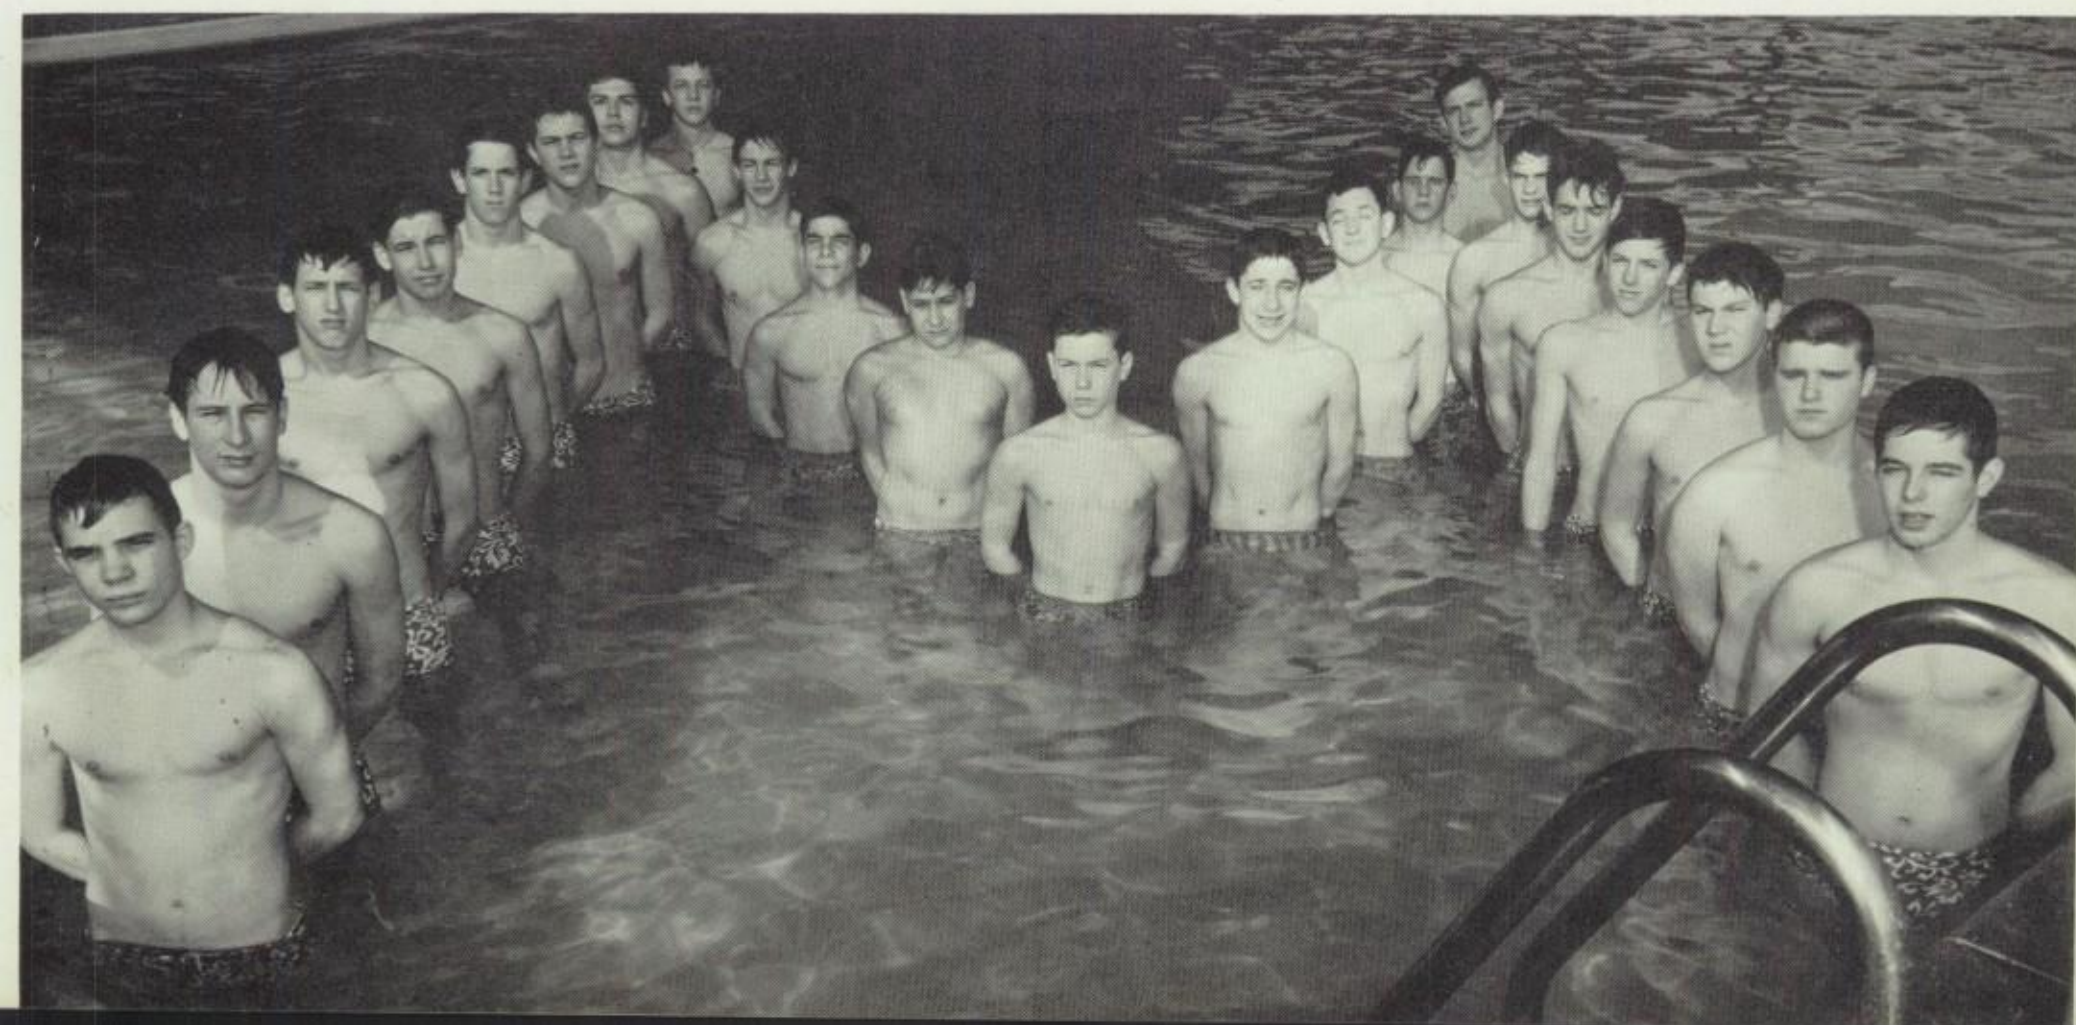

It was a frustrating season for this year's squad. Plagued by injuries and other mishaps, the team never swam with a full squad.

Outstanding members this year were J. Doyle and M. McCoy in the butterfly; freestylers D. Reynolds, B. O'Reilly, M. Brophy, M. Conlisk; diver D. Callahan, breaststrokes E. Foley and B. Meehan; and backstrokes J. Hermansen, J. Tario and B. Frieze.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

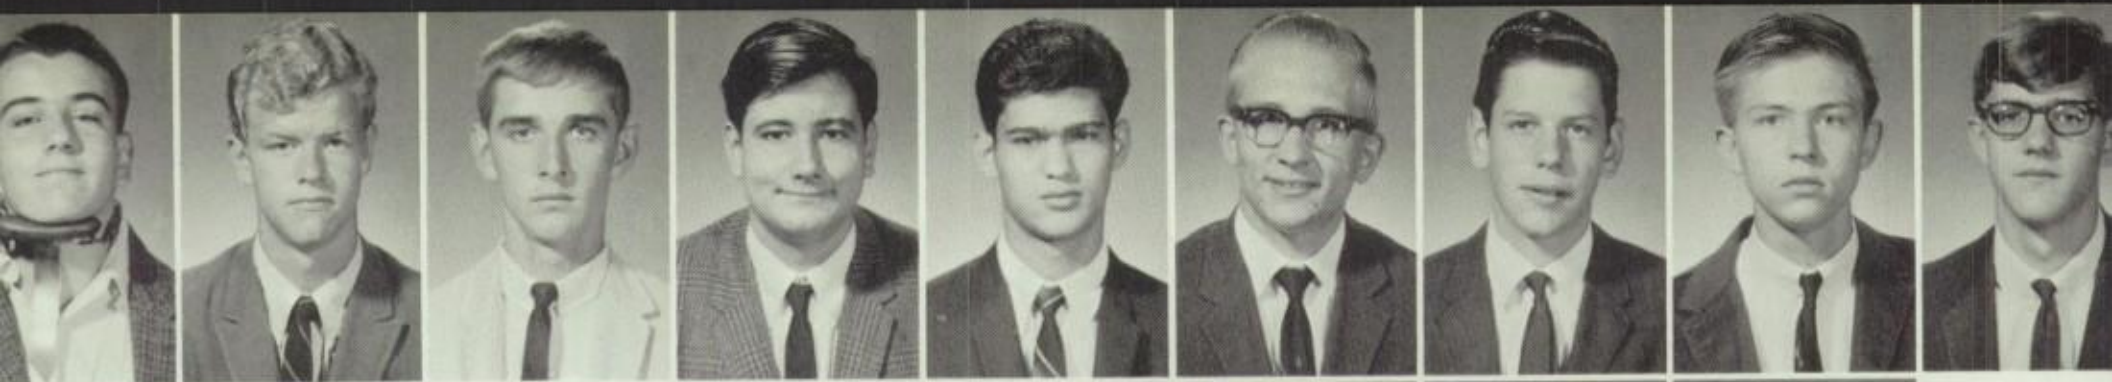

Marist Seniors, Juniors, and Alumni celebrated the Christmas season with a semi-formal dance at school on December 28, 1968. Music was provided by The Cleffs, a group that played selections of modern pop music with a slowed-down style. Dancing was in the cafeteria while couples enjoyed refreshments in the beautifully decorated school corridor. All who attended this "Christmas Fantasy" found it an enjoyable evening.

JUNIORS

The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept
Were toiling upward in the night.

C A G

The Christian Action Group of Marist High School has as its goal the development of a dynamic nucleus of Christian life within the student body. Under the direction of Br. Thomas A. Kirkman, the CAG finds its strength in frequent study days and days of recollection, and carries its inspiration into various apostolates: the collection for the missions, the canned food drive, and the tutorial program within the school. The CAG is to be admired and supported for its unique contribution to student life at Marist.

First Row: Wayne Lustyk, Brian McNally, Henry Kleifgen, Richard Berdell, Paul Laughlin. Second Row: Edward Berk, Byron Yehling, Robert Osacky, Thomas Glatz, Lloyd Christensen, Terrence Sullivan, Kevin Fahey. Third Row: Br. Ronald Mulholland, moderator; Gerald Roethel, Michael Reidy, Kevin O'Connor, Mark Andrews, Charles McPheeters, David Boras, Salvatore Cannarozzi, Gary Wilson.

The V.S.C. performs an invaluable service to both the school and the community. The bulk of their work is comprised of school and city tutoring, although their generous efforts touch many areas. This corps of students and their faculty moderators are Marist's way of saying that Christian education and the values it engenders can be, and are, a salutary influence on the community of man.

OAK FOREST HOSPITAL GROUP

William Wolski, Salvatore Cannarozzi, Michael Plahm, Daniel Pels, Michael McKevitt, Edmund Lawlor, Kevin Smith.

Every Sunday morning this group of volunteers travels to Oak Forest Hospital to aid in the transportation of those patients who wish to attend Sunday Mass but who are confined to wheelchairs. This activity, begun this year as a project of the CAG, is another example of the generous, often behind-the-scenes, apostolic work done by many of our students.

This year's basketball season saw the organization of a new group at Marist, the Cheerleaders. Under the direction and guidance of Mrs. Russell De Bruin, this group of girls from neighboring schools leads our vocal expression of school spirit at the games, while adding feminine charm to an otherwise totally masculine setting.

FATHERS' CLUB

Seated: Mr. George Reynolds, President; Mr. John Sweeney, Freshman V.-P.; Br. George Shanahan, Moderator; Mr. James Thezan, Director. Standing: Mr. Bill Callahan, Treasurer; Mr. Dick Tranowski, Publicity; Mr. Frank Bohac, Secretary; Mr. Dick Cronin, Sophomore V.-P.; Mr. Tony Dubrick, Senior V.-P.

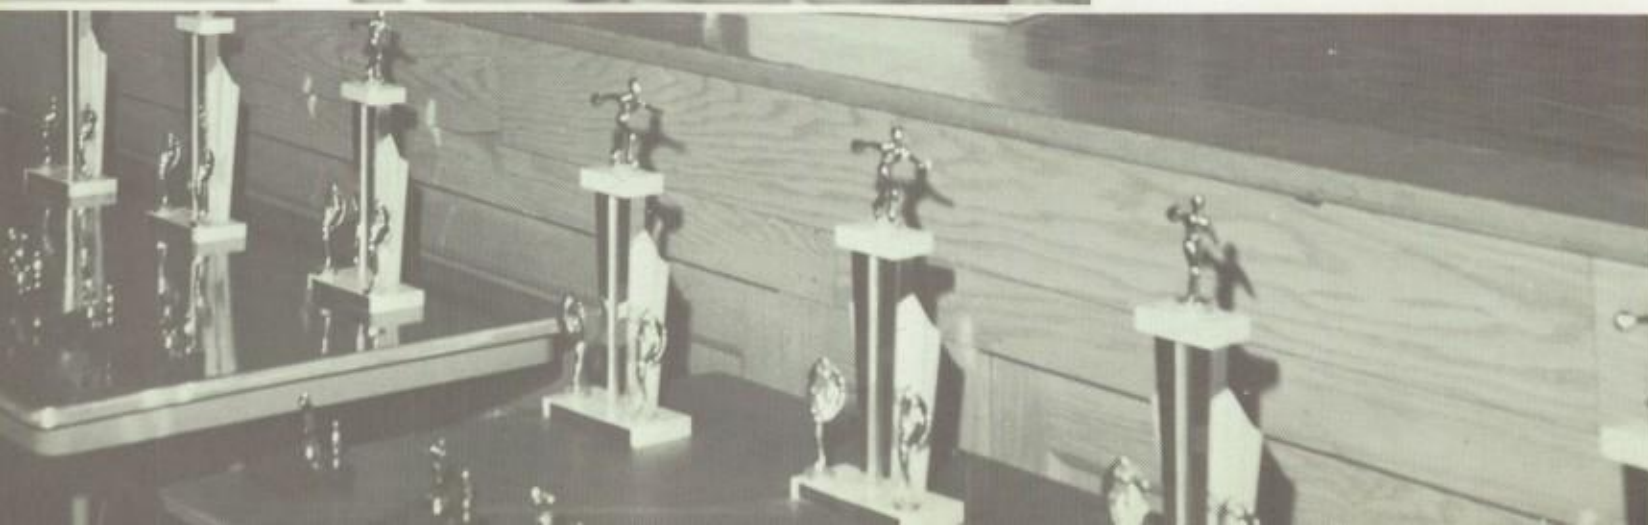

Seated: Mr. Mike O'Connor, Mr. Bill Higgins, Mr. Stan Gay, Mr. Bob Quinn, Mr. Jim Mangan. Standing: Mr. Ted Buchler, Mr. Bill Treacy, Mr. Ed Cowhey, Mr. Emmett McCarthy, Mr. Dick Lippert.

The Fathers' Club, moderated by Br. George Shanahan, has been successful, as Br. Patrick Cestaro put it, "in bringing the family together." The Fathers' Club has been noted for its Father-Son Night on which the students accompany their fathers to a specially planned Fathers' Club meeting. This year Coach Joe Yonto returned to Marist with all-American tackle George Kunz of the Notre Dame Irish. Highlights of Notre Dame's 1968 football season were shown to the interested crowd.

Other activities of the Fathers' Club included Father-Son Bowling, the Smoker, and the Block M dinner. To raise funds for the Block M, the Fathers' club sponsored several Sunday night sock hops. Truly Marist owes a debt of thanks to the Fathers' Club for their well-planned and well-supported activities.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Marist Mothers' Club was successful this year, as always, in its fund-raising for the school. Events such as the Card Party and the Fashion Show, entitled Fiesta Nacional, give generous donations to the school. Activities including Mother-Son Bowling, the food demonstration and the wine-tasting party, provided enjoyable opportunities for socializing while carrying on the very serious business of supporting our school.

FATHER-FACULTY BASKETBALL

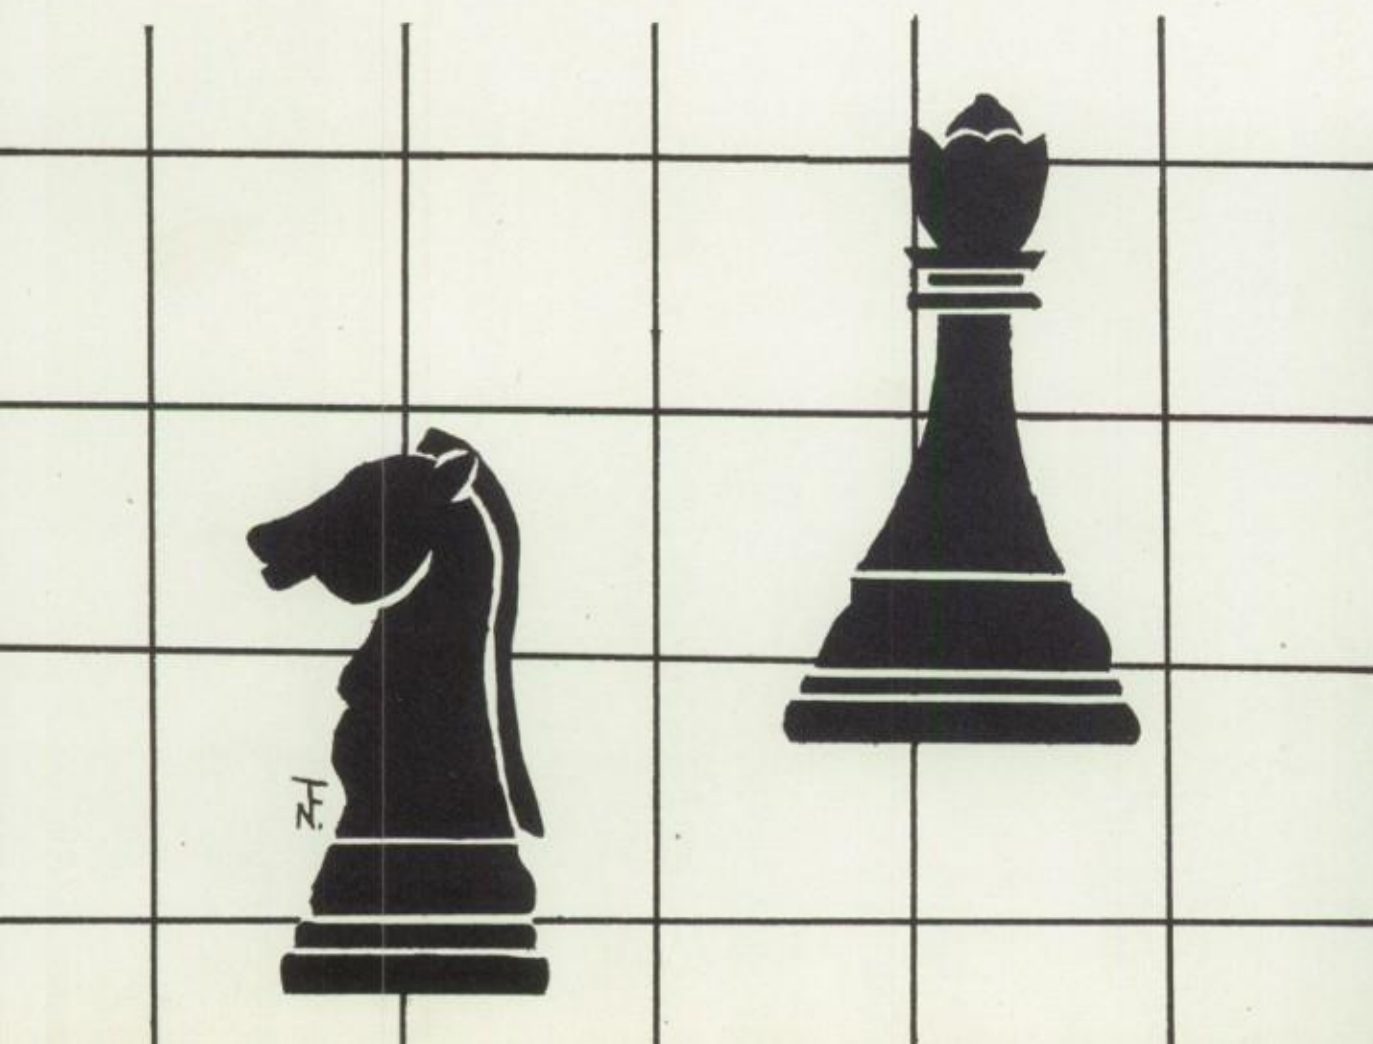

On February 24, 1969, the Marist Father's Club soundly defeated the unco-ordinated Faculty team by the score of 52 to 50. An admission fee of twenty-five cents was charged to cover for the possible medical expenses incurred after the game. Later, trophies were awarded for outstanding sportsmanship. A good time was enjoyed by all who participated, either as spectators or players.

Members planned the second annual Homecoming Weekend, the homecoming and Christmas semi-formals, and a number of sock-hops and rallies. They also supplied the service of securing buses to transport students to inconveniently located games.

MARIST POSTULATE GUILD

The Marist Postulate Guild is an organization of parents devoted to the welfare of the young men who are becoming Marist Brothers, and to the upkeep of their training house, the Marist Postulate on Ellis Avenue and 48th Street. These pictures were taken at one of the many social affairs organized by the Guild to offer others the opportunity to support their efforts. The Marist Postulate Guild is to be praised for its selfless work so essential to the formation of young men for the Brotherhood.

JANITORIAL & CAFETERIA STAFFS

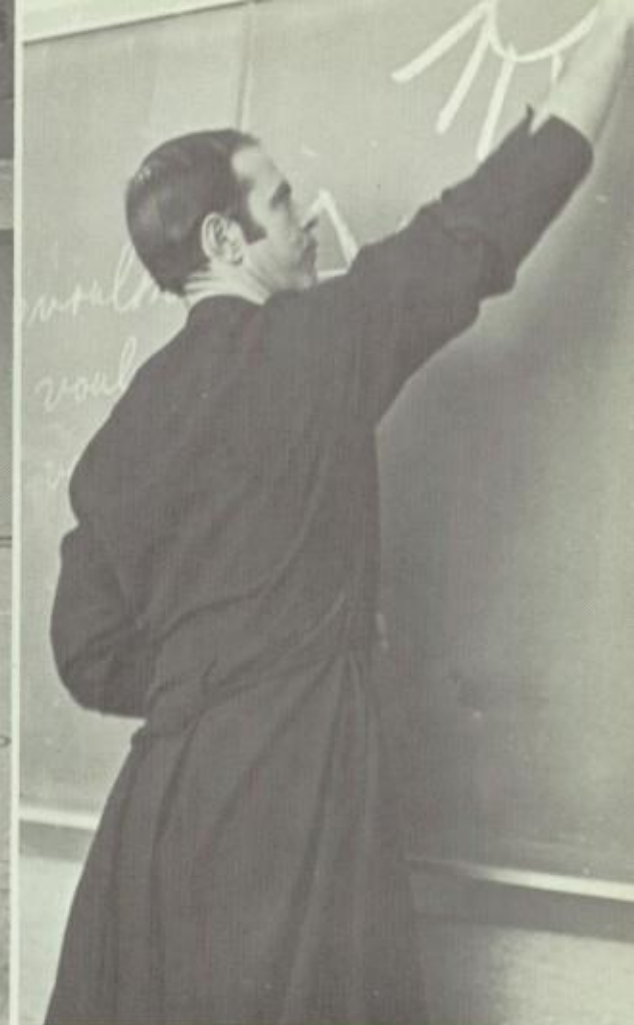

No one notices the people "behind the scenes" when they do their job well. Only when they fail do we realize how much they really do. Therefore it is imperative, we feel, that we thank the members of these two staffs for performing their services efficiently and carefully, thus contributing to the smooth functioning of Marist High School.

LIFE

Some may say that Marist is "going to the dogs." But, in reality, the opposite is true. Missy, a female canine of dubious extraction, came to Marist from her birthplace in the Very Near East under the care and protection of Br. Anthony Jambor, a man noted for his appreciation of the beauties of the Orient. Since her arrival, the sight of Missy frolicking on the lawns has provided classtime amusement to many students. We laud Missy for shedding her influence in our humble hallways.

THE PLAINSMEN

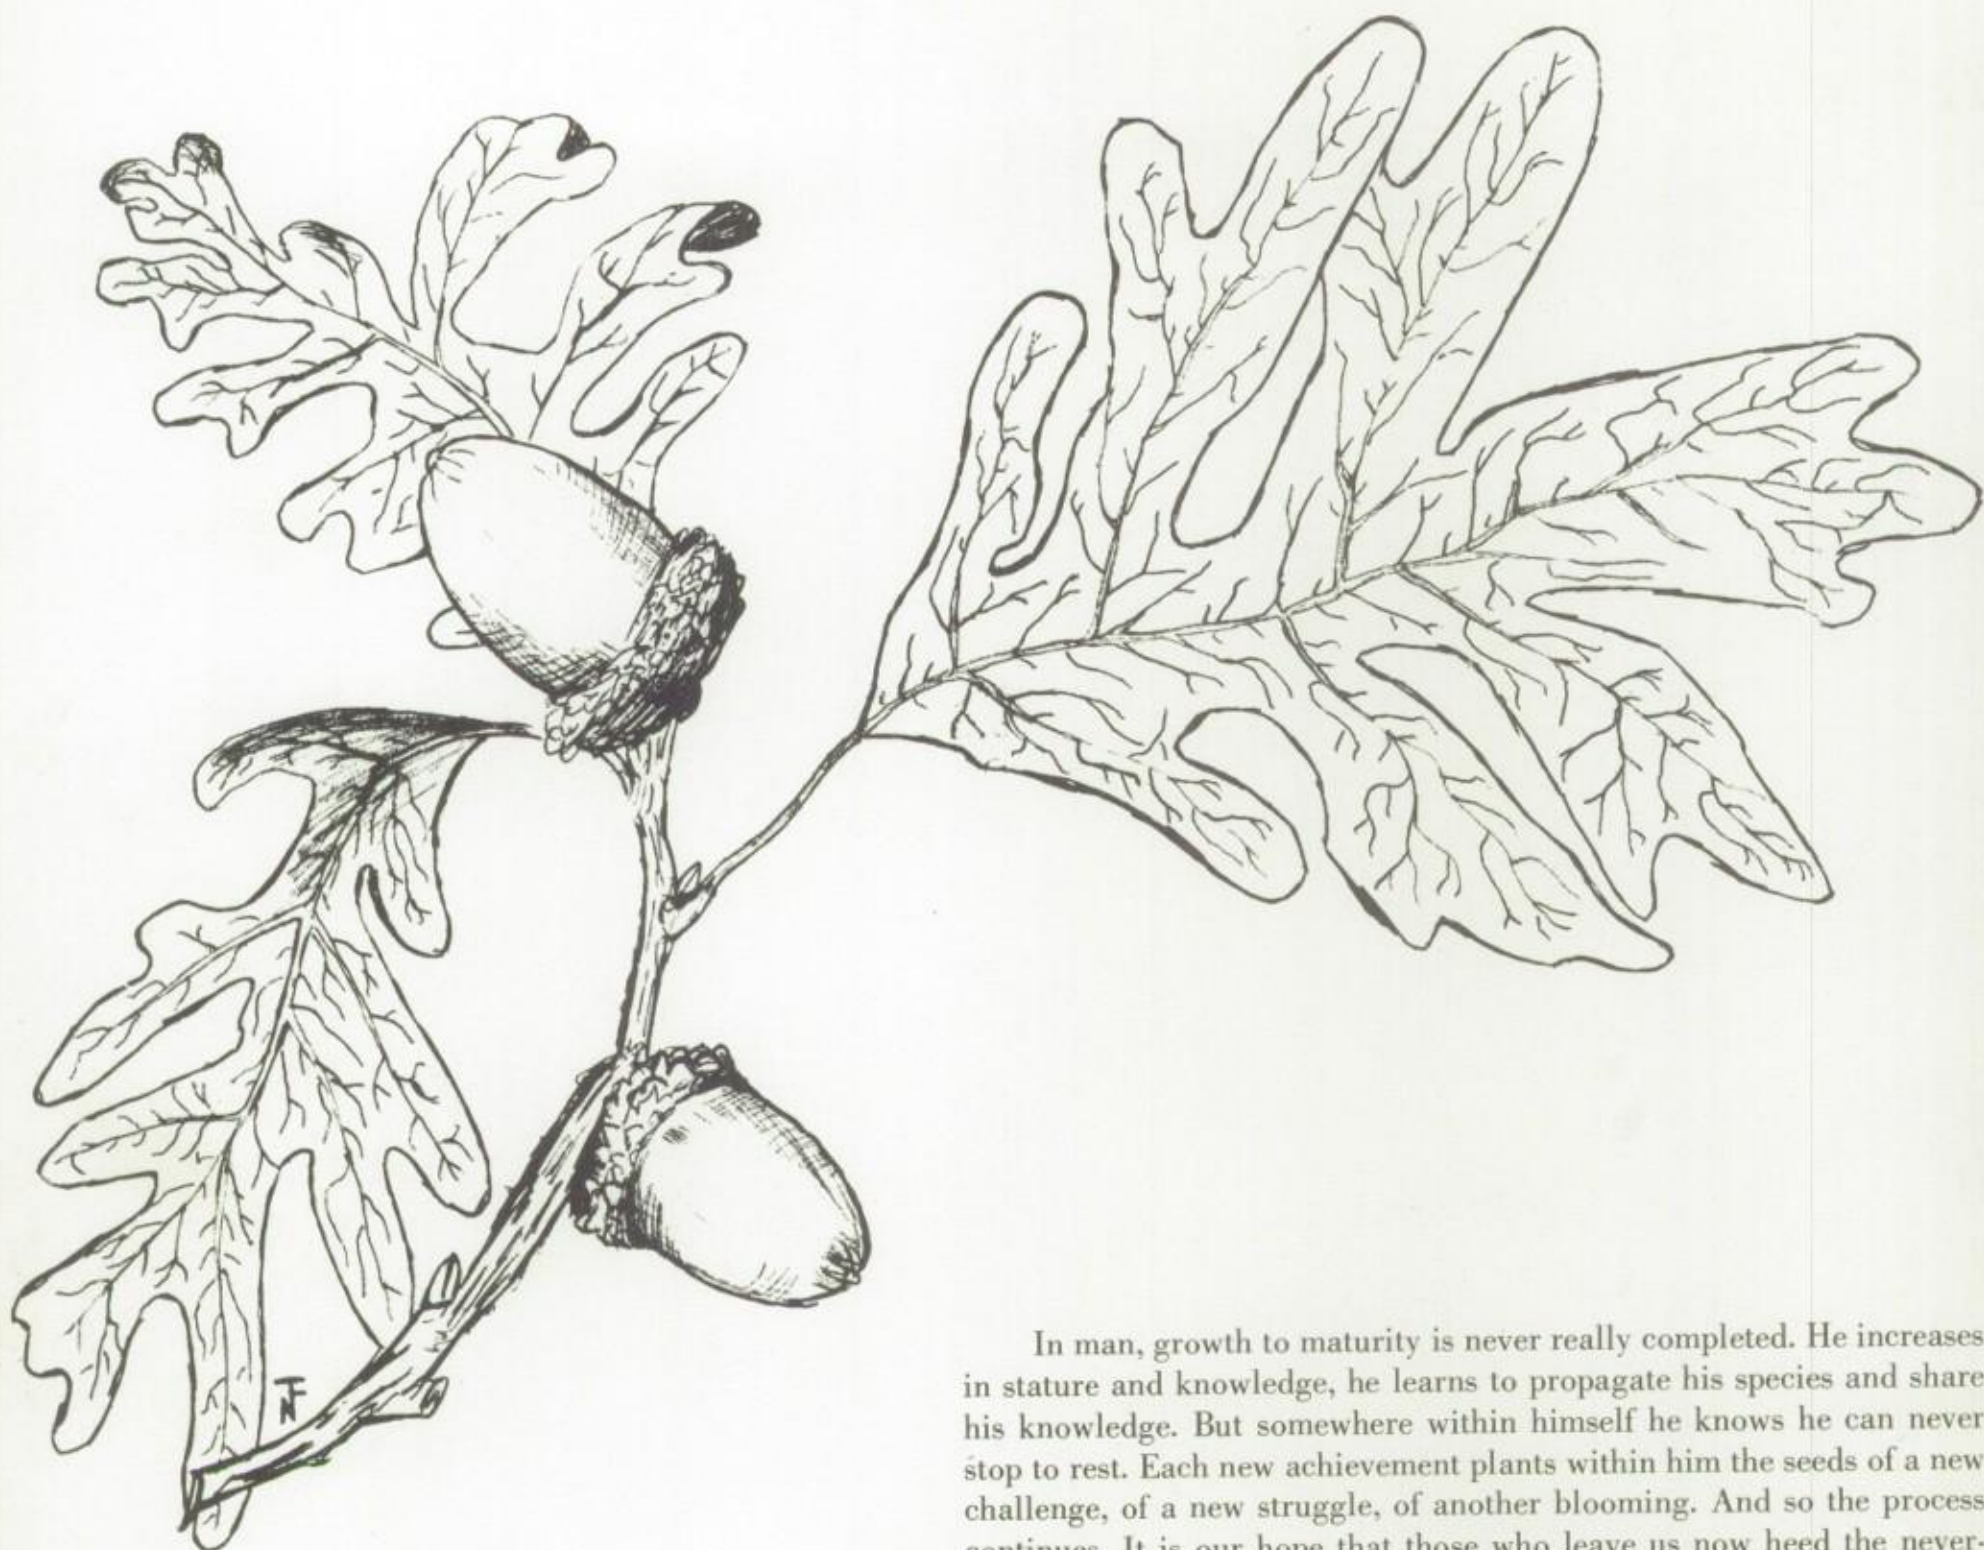

On March 21, 1969, the staff of the Marist Plainsman rejoiced after the successful completion of another edition. A great deal of work went into the development of this year's journal, with a few members of the committee giving up their free days to meet their deadlines. As the editor of the 1969 Plainsman, I wish to thank you for supporting our efforts and I hope that you will continue to do so in the future.

Sincerely,

William J. Kemp

In man, growth to maturity is never really completed. He increases in stature and knowledge, he learns to propagate his species and share his knowledge. But somewhere within himself he knows he can never stop to rest. Each new achievement plants within him the seeds of a new challenge, of a new struggle, of another blooming. And so the process continues. It is our hope that those who leave us now heed the never-ending call to strive towards a fullness of manhood, and reach out to others to share what they have accomplished.

The moderator of the "1969 Plainsman" wishes to express his gratitude to Br. Anthony Uanino and the Photography Club for their generous assistance, to Mr. George Sessa for designing the cover, and to Mr. Neal Foley for his excellent art work. Finally he wishes to thank the Yearbook Staff for their untiring work and support.
